MINUTES: The minutes of the 981st were approved, with no corrections.

TREASURER'S REPORT: There was no Treasurer's report this evening.

OLD/NEW BUSINESS: Society members voted to approve a slate of NJNS officers (the same four as last year) to serve in 2022. The Society also opted to remain virtual only for our January 2022 meeting.

NJNS members discussed where a medal could be designed to commemorate the 1,000 meeting of the NJNS. Several potential companies were mentioned including the Medallie Mint, Ron Landis and Jesse Patrick. Dr. Michael Fey will contact Ron Landis.

Leroy C. Van Allen assigned his intellectual property rights including manuscripts, exonomia and various coins to Michael Fey. Fey is forming a new nonprofit organization to continue VAM identification with Morgan and Peace dollars. Dr. Fey's nonprofit is The Institute for Silver Dollar Education and Research. Fey reported that 95% of the silver dollars were raw and that it took him two days to sort through the 425 silver dollars as well as many hundreds of Buffalo nickels and varieties.

Ray Williams mentioned the Martin Warburton reference that covers medals issued with the Sentimental Magazine in the 1770s. The thirteen medals were engraved by John Kirk. Warburton's book (and supplement) can be obtained from the author with paypal. The cost is ten pounds which includes postage. If interested, email Martin: martin@richardmills.net.

If you still owe your $20.00 NJNS dues, please send a check to Mike Balwierczak, NJNS Treasurer. Here is his home address: Mike Balwierczak, 91 Benedict Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10314.
